

Knowledge Organiser

Year: 1

Subject: RE

Unit: How does Celebration bring a community together?

Overview:

During this sequence of learning, pupils will look at the religions Christianity and Islam and the way in which celebrations can bring a community together.

What should I already know?

- There are different religions including Hinduism, Christianity and Judaism.
- There are similarities between the religions in that they all have special places of worship and holy books.
- To worship means to show deep respect towards a god or sacred object.
- Some religions like Christianity believe in one god whereas others like Hinduism believe in many gods.

What will I know by the end of the unit?

Christianity

- Baptism is a Christian ceremony.
- When someone is baptized, they become a follower of Jesus.
- Families come together to celebrate baptism.
- After the Church service, a party is usually held for families and friends to celebrate together.

Islam

- Islam is one of the world religions. It is a religion that believes in one God called Allah
- People that follow the religion of Islam are called Muslims.
- Muslims believe that Muhammad is a messenger of Allah (God).
- Muslims worship in mosques. Muslims often call the mosque by its Arabic name - Masjid.
- The Muslim holy book is called the Qur'an.
- Eid al Fitr is a very important festival for Muslims.
- It is known as 'The Feast of Breaking the Fast' and is celebrated at the end of Ramadan.
- At Eid al-Fitr, Muslims wear their best clothes, decorate their homes and spend time with their families and friends.
- Some Muslims give money to the poor so that they can enjoy the day too.

Vocabulary:

Bible
Qu'ran

Christian sacred text.
Muslim scared text.

Church
Mosque

Christian place of worship.
Muslim place of worship.

Vicar

Christian spiritual leader.

Font

The part of the church where water is held for the baptism.

Godparents

People chosen to help bring up a child.

Cleansing

Washing a part of the body.

Fasting

Not eating or drinking anything.

Feasting

Eating large amounts.

Mecca

The holy city of Islam.

5 Pillars of
Islam

The rules that Muslims follow.

Enjoyment

Taking pleasure in something.

Forgiveness

When you stop being angry with someone for something they have done.