

SING FOR THE KING

Matthew Crossey & Tom Kirkham

We all stand together,
Joined here in friendship today.
Proud of all that binds us,
Our love and support on display.
We come here as brothers, as sisters, as people, as one,
To share in a moment and know that our future's begun.

So sing, sing for the King,
Sing for the King, sing for the King.
Ring, let the bells ring,
Let the bells ring, ring for the King.
Raise your voices high,
High up to the sky,
And know that there'll always be more that ties us than sets us apart.

We all stand united,
Let history show we were here.
Side by side, we're watching,
And all getting ready to cheer.
We come here as brothers, as sisters, as people, as one,
To share in a moment and know that our future's begun

So sing, sing for the King,
Sing for the King, sing for the King.
Ring, let the bells ring,
Let the bells ring, ring for the King.
Raise your voices high,
High up to the sky,
Let your spirits soar,
Give three cheers once more.
Raise your voices high,
High up to the sky,
And know that there'll always be more that ties us,
There'll always be more that ties us than sets us apart.

Raise your voices
To the sky
Raise your voices
To the sky
Raise your voices
To the sky
