

Knowledge Organiser

Year: 2 Subject: RSHE Block 1 Relationships

Unit: Families and people who care for me; Caring friendships; Respectful relationships

Overview:

During this sequence of learning, pupils will identify the ways in which people and families are unique, understanding there has never been and will never be another them. They will look at the difference between secrets and surprises and the importance of not keeping a secret that makes them feel uncomfortable, worried or afraid. They will recognise and celebrate their strengths and achievements, setting themselves simple but challenging goals. Pupils will look at stereotypes within their personal achievements and famous people that break stereotypes.

What should I already know?

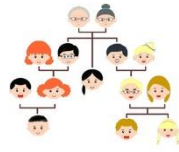

- Who is special to me, what makes them special and how I can care for them.
- Understand the importance of listening to other people including playing and working together.
- Know how to solve disagreements through negotiation.
- Be able to identify and respect differences and similarities between people and we can celebrate this.

Vocabulary:

Different	Not the same as another or each other
Special	More important to you than other people or things
Unique	Only one of its kind
Love	Strong feeling of affection

What will I know by the end of the unit?

- I am special and unique, there has never been and never will be another me.
- My family tree and what makes my family different and special.

- The best thing about belonging to my family and how I fit in.
- How a surprise makes me feel and what emotions come with a surprise.
- How secrets can feel uncomfortable and it is important not to keep a secret that makes me feel worried or afraid.
- Worries are sometimes easier to write down than say.
- How to give and receive a compliment graciously, accepting a compliment to boost my self-esteem and feel good about myself.
- The importance of setting personal goals and giving myself something to work hard towards, both in the short term and further into the future.
- Families can have two mums or two dads and each family is unique.
- Understand what is meant by stereotypes and how these do not stop them achieving their own personal goals.
- There are 7 protected characteristics. These are age, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, marriage and disability.
- Discuss different disabilities as one of the protected characteristics.

	for another person
Care	Look after and show concern for somebody's wellbeing
Secret	Something meant to be kept unknown or unseen by others
Surprised	The feeling when something has happened you didn't expect
Excited	Feeling very happy and enthusiastic
Worried	Anxious about what is happening or might happen
Self-esteem	How you feel about yourself, confidence in your abilities
Self-respect	To value yourself, a feeling you deserve to be treated well
Non-binary	A gender identity that does not fit into either male or female.
Stereo types	An oversimplified idea of a person or thing.
Protected characteristics	It refers to a group of people who are similar.